From the Pool – It was another great week at the pool. Even with all the crazy weather, the campers are eager to get in the water...Water Show is approaching quickly! Congratulations to last weeks Swimmers of the Week! Kelli

From the Field – We had a fun week up on the field getting ready for the Rock Concert! The kids have all been working really hard on their acts and can't wait to showcase them tonight after awards. Lili

Restaurant – the Fish Fry has begun! We have a number of menu changes we think you'll like. For the Fish Fry we've added baked Salmon to the every Friday menu. For Friday and Saturday grill we've added a new healthy choice Turkey Burger, plain or with cheese. We've also added a few new appetizers, Cheese Curds, Cheddar Bacon Jalapeno Poppers, and Honey Sriracha Cheese Sticks. This Friday don't miss Joe Gatz & Scott Odachowski's smoked pulled pork special. Next week's special is Fried Walleye.

The Prime Rib dinner is June 23rd. We will be taking pre-sale orders at the fish fry for $15/dinner. At the door will be $18 and we will not be able to guarantee a dinner for everyone who waits till the last minute.

Entertainment -This Friday – DJ on the patio following the kids Rock Concert (weather permitting)June 29 – Just Friends acoustic duo July 6 – Frank Sinatra & the sounds of the 50s and 60s. Volunteer Duties – just a reminder that fulfilling your duties is important to the functioning of camp and our offerings. Your three duties are a key obligation of being a cottage owner. If something comes up it is your responsibility to switch with someone or find a suitable replacement. When duties are missed committee chairs often have to step in to keep things going. Those folks are already giving generously of their time and really don't want to do another duty. A missed duty will result in a $250 fine. Remember to dress suitably for your duties. Closed toed shoes and t-shirts are recommended for kitchen duties. Decks, sheds, cottage construction – just a reminder to contact Howard Boress or Kurt Potthast to have Buildings & Grounds review and approve all project plans and timing of the project.

Thanks to the following: Marge and Jerry for donating a more up to date micro oven. Sue P. for finishing the painting in the upstairs of the Ladies House, Tim Z for cutting our grass and Tim K for removing the old micro and carting away our leaves. Ann

Youth - Congratulations to our first Camper of the Weeks: Sohpie Shannon and Ray Koehler; and Swimmer of the Weeks: Brandon Odachoswki, Declan DeRusha, Jackie VanDahm, Parker DeRusha, Keith Koehler and Amy Sawicki. Keep up the great work, campers! Next week during program hours, campers have the chance to express themselves and show off their true talents. If you want to see what these kids are all about, come to the Rhats next Friday night at 7pm to see our campers perform in the ITC Talent Show. Once again, Youth Committee is looking forward to our 2nd annual Family Fest on Saturday, June 30th at 1pm on the Afield. Food service includes Pig Roast, corn on the cob, watermelon, baked beans, hot dogs, brats, and potato salad. During the fest, you can play with bubbles as Glowby the Bubbler wows us with his bubble creations, see magic and illusions performed by Andy Kline, dance to live music performed by local band, The Destroyers, and win some awesome raffle baskets! Youth Committee is looking for volunteers to bartend, set up/take down decorations, manage children's games, facepaint and sell raffle tickets throughout the event. Contact Chris Mostyn or Kate Ganatos if you can help out! We'd love your support.
