In response to ongoing challenges with people parking at their cottages, the District Council has updated the parking policy to include specific timing and fines. Please see the revised section from the Rules and Regulations (updated 6/25/22) below:

Parking near cottages is prohibited. Cottage owners are permitted to load or unload from their vehicles from service roads only for no more than 15 minutes, but ALL vehicles MUST be parked in a designated parking lot as indicated on the Camp map except for the Building and Grounds Committee Chairperson during active work hours and ongoing Camp projects. On an annual basis, parking violators will receive a verbal warning for the first infraction, a written warning for the second infraction, a $100 fine for the third infraction, and a $200 fine per infraction thereafter. Continued violation of the parking policy may be subject to additional action by the Camp Committee and/or the Illinois District Council. Thank you,

Tom Webb - yet another lifelong Turner. He's married to Lisa and has been coming to camp since he was a kid. His involvement with the kitchen comes naturally after a career in the restaurant business, including owning his own restaurants. Tom can be seen running around camp as he is a fitness nut. He also has some good stories about the shower that used to be in the Rathskeller. Give that man a rum and coke!
